New ConTex-Commentary - issued:		13.02.20
Whilst the index dropped „only“ 3 points last week we have now seen a further decrease of 7 points during this week. This is obviously not to a big surprise as the extended Chinese New Year break due to the Corona Virus is almost paralyzing the shipping industry. This is mainly in Asia, however the impact can be seen worldwide. Due to the uncertainty at the moment it is difficult to forecast when the situation will change back to normal. On a week-on-week basis almost all numbers are slightly down. Lowest with -0,5% is the evaluation for 12 months on the 1100 TEU ladies and highest with -2,3% is the 12 months evaluation for the 3500 TEU ships. On a month-on-month basis it looks pretty much the same, however the negative trend is more visible by upto -4,8% (12 months / 3500 TEU). However looking back a year where the Index was at 387 points we are still 28 points ahead and only the 1100 TEU for 12 months is red (-3,4%) whilst all other evaluations are in black.
