New ConTex-Commentary - issued:

22.04.21

"The only way is up" - there are hardly any better words than this 1980's song to better illustrate the current charter market and the New ConTex.

Therefore the weekly commentaries do not really differ lately... For the last ten months we've seen a surge of figures reaching another record high this week. At 1,234 points the New ConTex marks another 4.8% up from last week and an incredible 234% Y-o-Y. Profitting most are the smaller sizes again, especially the 1100 TEUs with 7.4/8.0% for 6/12 months respectively, followed by the 1700's.

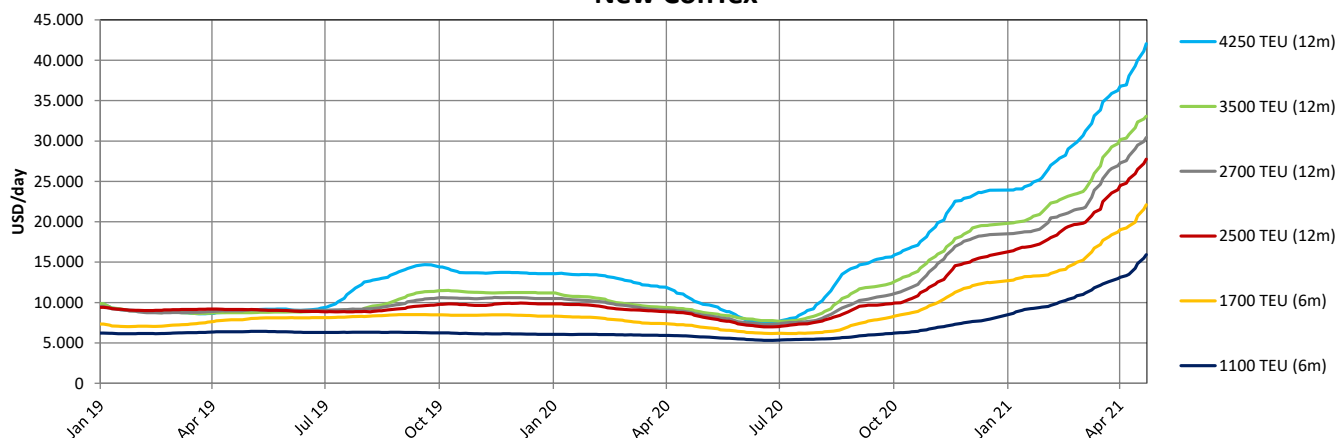

But also the Panmaxes show above-average increases, whereas the other types continue their "low profile" ascent - slowly but steady.

With charterers meanwhile considering to fix 2022 positions already, one would expect rates to remain firm for the time being.
