New ConTex-Commentary - issued:		13.01.22
The pace of gains is increasing once again. On the back of strong demand for extra-loaders for Asia to Europe and Asia to US trade, rates for short term periods are increasing fast. This is also represented in the New ConTex figures where the 1700 TEU segment posted the largest week on week increase after one ship fixed a Asia - USWC round voyage at 80,000$. With an ever shorter list of available candidates and a continuously high rate of vessel purchases by end-users smaller ships of 1100 TEU and below are now regularly asking for 3 year periods. Vessels in the 2500 to 3000 TEU range also registered fixtures well above last done; some with over 40,000$ for 3 years. In addition a number of ships was again extended several months in advance at very good figures. Overall it looks like the market will continue this positive trend for some time to come.
