New ConTex-Commentary - issued:	04.04.24
The positive development in 2024 continues for the New ConTex with another weekly gain of 7 points. The momentum is however slowing down as the increase has been the slowest, both in terms of absolute points and percentage terms, this year. Despite the slower rate of gain, the higher levels appear to be solidifying as the percentage premiums of the shorter 6/12 months periods compared to the longer 12/24 months durations have gone down during the last month for all but the 3500 TEU segment, indicating a the expectation of current rates to stay for longer. Once again the 1700 TEU category has posted the largest gains. This segment has recently been very active and the higher rates in the Atlantic, compared to the Pacific continues to attract vessels to move towards Europe. Near future availability in the Mediterranean for this size range, though has recently gone slightly up.
