New ConTex-Commentary - issued:		30.10.25
Another rather quiet week is coming to an end, showing no real surprises. The New ConTex has dropped by a point which equates to a 0.1% decline week-on-week. What can be noticed, though, might be the fact that, except for the 1100 TEU and the 3500 TEU vessels, all sizes show the same pattern - short term is (marginally) going down and there seems to be more confidence (although very little in numbers) in the longer periods. All changes are in the range between 0.1 and 0.6% - either side of the "0". Only the 1100 TEUs are in the black for both periods, whereas the 3500 TEUs come with a negative notation - however both very marginally only. Periods of new fixtures are becoming shorter but charter rates are remaining at healthy, although partly discounted, levels. The Box rates meanwhile seem to have stabilized further, last week's SCFI gained another 7%.
